ASK THE QUESTION

is a simple, recognizable, memorable, and powerful concept.

Inspiring service providers to better identify and engage the military-veteran population, ASK THE QUESTION allows for more informed coordination of resources and the ability to connect our military with supports and services.

Service providers are making a profound impact by opening up the conversation with Service Members, Veterans, and Families (SMVF) and connecting them to services and care.

WHY ASK THE QUESTION?

Service providers that ASK THE QUESTION can:

- ▶ Understand the relationship between military experiences and medical symptoms
- ▶ Help connect veterans to the VA
- ▶ Identify a warrior's transferable job skills
- ▶ Address service-related barriers to stable housing
- ▶ Assist military widows access survivor benefits
- ▶ Help a student thrive when a parent is deployed
- ▶ Create a well-informed and collaborative system of care
